2016. From the XA series of 1972 onward, each Falcon and range of derivatives have been designed, developed, and built in Australia, following the phasing out of the American-influenced Falcon of 1960 to 1971, which had been re-engineered locally as the XK to XY series for the harsher Australian conditions.

This Brock B8 Falcon S was advertised along with several other Brock Falcons as part of a collection in November 2018. AN amazing opportunity for the Brock Ford enthusiast to grab a few cars - or perhaps for a museum to pick them up. This one had 185,000km on the clock at the time of sale (and asking $19,500).

Considering the fundamental simplicity of the Ford's suspension it behaves well enough for a 1600 kg vehicle, although the S still doesn't go far enough for some of the engineers and we should see a less compromised version sometime early in 1990. The EA Falcon, Series II, is the car Ford should have given us in early 1988. it's good
