REVIEW: Dark Soul Vol. 1 by Aleksandr Voinov

This fist volume is actually director's cut, combining Dark Soul Vol. 1 and Dark Soul Vol. 2, as they were first published. The blurb already gives us the general plot, but this book has its surprises. Well I must admit I was expecting a different story. Something closer to Guns n' Boys: He Is Poison.

review 1: I have read about Silvio into a book by K.A. Merikan and I was just curious of him, but the novel by Aleksandr Voinov surprised me in many way and all pleasant. Though I don't like the serial form , Dark soul worked for me, so as the story divided in parts. Make all more fast, dynamic; also makes appreciate better the story, know the characters and relish the plot and the writing is ...
