~~Magazine Cartooning—How and Where To Sell Your Cartoons ...~~

The success-to-failure ratio is abysmal. An established cartoonist will, on average, sell only 1 cartoon for every 20 they draw. Few magazines pay decently for cartoons. If a cartoon isn't selected by any of them, its earning potential drops close to zero. Magazines only want non-published cartoons, so a cartoon can earn money only once. Because of this, each cartoon's earning potential goes from slim to zero very quickly.
