so in an economic world that simply did not need their labour. Perhaps I can end with the story of a street encounter that particularly sticks in my memory. Walking close to Sauchiehall Street in the early 1970s, a group of older boys asked my friend and me if we were 'Billys or Dans'. To his eternal credit, my friend replied that he was ...

Such evaluations are not easy to perform, for several reasons: the space sector is not a recognised category in official statistics; social benefits, which are likely to be very important, are hard to assess; and impacts from R&D are complex and occur in the long term. However, important steps can be made towards better evaluation of impacts.
