~~review 1: I only recently discovered Cathy Cassidy's work, and I feel as though my ten year old self has missed out on a wonderful series of books. Despite the targeted age group being much younger than me, I found the book highly interesting and read it all in one sitting. The style of writing was simplistic due to the age of reader it was intended for, yet not overly so, making it easy to ...~~

~~A coming of age novel built on a relatable plot, Ginger Snaps is written in a format that is easy to read. Cathy Cassidy allows the transition of the main characters' different points of their lives flow seamlessly into one another. Having read this novel many times before, I could truly focus on the details this time round.~~
