Gabriel Davis has a knack for dialogue and monologue and that is displayed in this play. The turn-on-a-dime discussion between a comedic situation to a biting dramatic statement is shown throughout this play and it is a funny, sensitive, and overall great play. Davis (Monologist stands in front of her soon to be ex-husband) I ate them. That's right. I ate the divorce papers, Charles. I ate them with ketchup. And they were good...gooooood. You probably want me to get serious about our divorce. The thing is you always called our marriage a joke.
