The Model 70 quickly gained a solid reputation for its design, accuracy and workmanship. At the time, Jack O'Connor was on his way to becoming "the dean of American gun writers," and he referred to the new Winchester as one of the two best rifles in the world (the other being the M98 Mauser). 3 Most collector interest in Winchesters is for models made before 1964—the year the company ...

Nomenclature. With the increased use of semi-automatic and automatic firearms, the detachable magazine became increasingly common. Soon after the adoption of the M1911 pistol, the term "magazine" was settled on by the military and firearms experts, though the term "clip" is often used in its place (though only for detachable magazines, never fixed). The defining difference between clips and ...
