It will help you recognise which style most appeals to you and will give you ideas on the essentials you may need to complement your style. All the photos in the book are fantastic and in my opinion the book is worth the expense for those alone. I love your style, how to define and refine your personal style by Amanda Brooks is available at Amazon.

Urban Dictionary: I like your style

This is one of my favorite style books -- and I love style books. The author presents a holistic picture of owning one's own style instead of prescribing what one should wear to a certain place or at a certain age. I love the approach she takes. One's style does not always remain constant. This is represented beautifully in the book.

Some examples from the web: Although I do love your style because you both chose to wear purple.; Irmgard must love your style.; Sweetie, I say this with a heart full of love, but your style could use a tiny shot of adrenaline. And I love Jesus' style, you know?: My manager wanted us to do this lame rock wedding thing but we thought we'd sneak up to Vegas and do it Chapel of Love style.
