The following notes cover the entire Physics 30 curriculum (2007 version). I don't intend that my students use these notes as an excuse to skip class... in fact I've put them here for the exact opposite reason. If you already have these notes when you come to class, you'll find it easier to follow my explanations as I go through them.

~~Physics 30 Note A Rific~~

The practice problem is from the Physics 30 Workbook by Kennedy and Oswald! I tried to calculate momentum of block A by using inclined plane formulas, so I found $F_{g\parallel}$ which is $\sin x F_g$, then since there is no friction I did $F_{net} = F_{g\parallel}$ or $ma = \sin x mg$. I found the acceleration and input it into the formula $v_f^2 = v_i^2 + 2ad$ and found final velocity which I ...
