The final release was Psionic Artifacts of Athas (1996) though two books, Dregoth Ascending and Secrets of the Dead Lands were rumored to have been near completion to the point that early versions were reportedly given to some GMs at the 1997
Gen Con Game Fair before the line ended.

Psionic Artifacts of Athas - Wikipedia

The psionic artifacts don't even get pictures, unlike the magical or life-shaped artifacts, and the major aspect that makes psionic artifacts so interesting--that they're intelligent, with their own personalities and goals that might not match with those. The biggest sin that a book of monsters or magic can commit is to be boring, and Psionic Artifacts of Athas definitely commits that sin.
