Chinese painting is one of the oldest continuous artistic traditions in the world. Painting in the traditional style is known today in Chinese as guóhuà (simplified Chinese: 国画; traditional Chinese: 國畫), meaning "national" or "native painting", as opposed to Western styles of art which became popular in China in the 20th century.. Traditional painting involves essentially the same ...

European paintings follow delicate realism by reproducing an actual view of reality. The more close it is to the real, the better. The landscape in a European painting is a copy of the real landscape. It doesn't represent an inner reality or meaning. It tries for an illusionistic likeness with the real.
