The Technique of the Love Affair: By a Gentlewoman. This 1928 classic--playfully shocking and surprising practical--is now back in print, astutely annotated for the nineties. This is a masterfully written dialogue between the worldly "Cypria" and the native and sentimental "Saccharissa" on how to conduct--with grace and restraint--love affairs.

And the deepest layer beneath the surface of the water is love, wants, needs and desires. This technique recognizes that we often use the surface emotions of anger, sadness and hurt as a cover-up for our fear. Only in confronting our fears can we begin taking responsibility for our emotional choices in life.
